Grand Cru Classé

VINTAGE
2007

OWNER
Jean-Michel CAZES

Surface : 90 hectares

« Terroir » (soil) : Garonne Gravel

Harvest : Hand-picked and sorted at the vineyard

Ageing : French oak barrels for 15 months (70% new wood)

Blending : 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc, 2% Petit Verdot

Following a rainy end to August, summer finally came at the beginning of September, lasting more than a month and a half with perfect weather conditions.

Today, the wine rhymes with balance and subtlety. On the nose, the freshness of the fruit stands out, finding subtle harmony with the wood. On the palate it is rounded, smooth and mellowed. The tannins are silky and very ripe. The dazzling finish oozes with great class and is astonishingly long.
